REASONS TO VISIT VIETNAM

COUNTRY, PEOPLE & CULTURE

Vietnam is a relatively safe country to visit and it has a very precious treasure: its people! Many tourists are pleasantly surprised by the warm reception that foreign travellers receive from Vietnamese locals as they are found to be extremely friendly and hospitable.

The Vietnamese culture is richly embedded in its people and their way of life. The discovery of this unique culture is an interesting and fascinating journey, making Vietnam an increasingly popular tourist destination.

From the rice-cultivating tropical lowlands, to the rich-soiled, coffee producing highlands, Vietnam offers a unique and varied travel experience.

Life in the Mekong Delta is deeply connected to water. The lowlands are continually sliced by rivers and streams filled with boats.

Da Lat is an unmissable city to visit, located in the central highlands of Southern Vietnam. Da Lat was originally founded by the French as a vacation town and is often given the name "City of Eternal Spring" because of the mist that often covers the peaks and valleys.

Moving up to central Vietnam you will discover seemingly endless, white sandy beaches and picturesque coastlines. The central coast is scattered with luxurious resorts and hotels and experiences perfect weather conditions all year round.

Ha Long Bay is a recognised UNESCO World Heritage Site that is best known for its emerald waters and its thousands of towering limestone islands which are topped by rainforests.

In the north-west of Vietnam, near the Chinese border, rice terraces can be found in the Muong Hoa valley between Sa Pa town and the Fansipan Mountain, on a backdrop of thick bamboo woodlands. Here you will find many ethnic minorities known as the local Hill Tribe People.

VIETNAM FOOD

Vietnam food is one of the world's most up and coming cuisines. Expect healthy and fragrant dishes flavoured with lemongrass, fish sauce, lime, tamarind and chili.

You will find the best food right on the streets of every town. Settle down on the little blue or red chairs and enjoy a spicy Pho or Banh My, or any other local dishes. Every dish contains a careful balance of flavours topped with fresh herbs and is sold at unbelievably affordable prices.

PLANNING YOUR HOLIDAY

Vietnam is typically warm and humid and the weather can vary significantly from one region to another. Average temperature is 12-32 degrees in the north, 20-30 degrees in central Vietnam and 25-30 degrees in the south.

BEST TIME TO VISIT VIETNAM

REGIONS	BEST TIME TO VISIT
North Vietnam	Sep - Nov and Apr - Jun
Central Vietnam	Jan - Jun and Sep - Dec
Central Highlands	Nov - Apr
Southern Vietnam	Oct - Apr

TRAFFIC

Traffic in Vietnam can be extremely hectic. It does not matter if you as a pedestrian have a green light or if there is a crossing marked on the road, do not expect cars and bikes to stop to let you cross. Watch the locals first to see how they do it, then take off from the side walk, arm in arm. If there is more than one of you, walk slowly and steady in a straight direction and do not stop or steer off course. The traffic will automatically avoid you.

CURRENCY

The official currency in Vietnam is the Vietnamese "Dong". There is currently two versions of notes used: the Polymer note (500.000 VND, 200.000 VND, 100.000 VND, 50.000 VND, 20.000 VND and 10.000 VND) and Cotton note 5000 VND 200 VND.

HEALTH

You are advised to make an appointment with your doctor or travel clinic for a basic check-up at least six to eight weeks before you depart and find out if any vaccinations or health checks are required for your destination. Remember that some vaccines require a long period to take effect and more than one dose may be required.

You should make sure that your travel insurance covers all medical expenses for injuries or illness, as well as theft of valuables, damage to baggage and cancellations or interruptions to flight plans. Medical costs overseas can be in the tens of thousands of dollars and many people have been burdened financially in paying these costs when things go wrong. Recommended Medical Checklist: insect repellents, diarrhoea medication, paracetamol, sunscreen, antiseptic and antibacterial cream.

LANGUAGE

Vietnamese is the official language, although English is widely understood in most major tourist areas and amongst the younger generations. Here are some Vietnamese phrases to assist you on your holiday.

ENGLISH	VIETNAMESE	PRONUNCIATION
Hello	Xin chao	Sin chow
Good Bye	Tam biet	Tam byet
How are you?	Khoe khong	Kwe Khome
How much?	Bao nhieu	Bow nyew
Yes	Vang	Vung
No	Khong	Khome
Too expensive	Mac qua	Mahk qwa
Where is the toilet?	Nha ve sinh o dau	Toilet a doh
Thank you	Cam on	Gahm un
Excuse me / Sorry	Xin loi	Seen loy
What is your name?	Ban ten gi	Ban thane zee

TOP 10 PLACES TO VISIT IN VIETNAM

MEKONG DELTA

Known as the 'rice bowl' of Vietnam, the Mekong Delta is a landscape carpeted in a dizzying variety of greens and slashed with mighty waterways. It's a water world where boats, houses, restaurants and even markets float upon the innumerable rivers, canals and streams that flow through the region like arteries. At times you can quite simply lose sight of land.

HO CHI MINH CITY

Ho Chi Minh city, formerly named Saigon, is the largest city in Vietnam. Discover the country's history by visiting the War Remnants Museum and Reunification Palace. Admire the French colonial architecture at the Federal Post Office, Opera House and Notre Dame Cathedral. From here you can explore the long maze of tunnels (Cu Chi) made by the Vietnamese people during the war.

NHA TRANG

Nha Trang is a charming seaside city which is renowned for its powder white sand and limpid green sea. Thanks to the tropical climate, Nha Trang has become one of the top destinations in Vietnam. Along with its natural beauty this coastal city's rich culture lures in tourists. Activities such as strolling through the streets lined with coconut palms, lying on white-sandy beaches bathing in the glorious sunshine, embarking on a luxury cruise or tasting the tempting seafood on the island province, are all bound to make your Nha Trang vacation unforgettable. Nha Trang is also a popular destination for honeymooners.

DA NANG

Danang is nestled between three Cultural World Heritage Sites: Hue Citadel, Hoi An ancient town and the Sanctuary of My Son. Along with its beautiful landscapes this makes Da Nang a must-visit destination in Central Vietnam. Not only are tourists impressed by the natural beauty, but also by its hospitable and welcoming locals. ## HUE

Palaces and pagodas, tombs and temples, culture and cuisine history and heartbreak – there is no shortage of poetic pairings to describe Hue. Like many countries in Asia, Vietnam was formally ruled by dynasties of families; by feudal lords and ladies; by emperors with harems and grand palaces. Hue is where the Imperial Forbidden City is located. Although the Imperial City today is only a shadow of what it once was, it is still well worth a visit to discover the royal splendours thanks to recent restoration efforts.

SAPA

Established as a hill station by the French in 1922, the north west market town of Sapa is colourful and charming. The town is orientated around the most spectacular views that emerge on clear days. It overlooks a plunging valley of cascading rice terraces, with mountains towering above on all sides. Views of this epic scenery are often subdued by a thick mist rolling across the peaks, but even if it is cloudy, Sapa is still a fascinating destination especially when the local Hill-tribe people fill the town with colours during the weekend markets.

HANOI

A fascinating mix of old and new Vietnam with Chinese and French influences makes Hanoi one of the most beguiling cities in South East Asia. Hanoi is changing quickly but maintains a strong sense of identity. The city is full of things to explore, from the architecture of the Old Quarter to Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum and the Temple of Literature. There are many activities to do in Hanoi such as visiting the local markets, participating in tai chi with the locals and learning the secrets to Vietnamese cuisine in a cooking class. The city of Hanoi is also very affordable with most hotels and restaurants offering exceptional value.

Today foreigners can explore the main centres of this region with ease but there are some areas that will require you to hire a guide when trying to explore further.

Apart from trekking in the mountainous north, visitors can now also go rock-climbing, canyoning, sea kayaking, kitesurfing, zip lining, elephant riding, mountain biking and motor biking among other activities, making it the emerging adventure capital of Vietnam.
